Durham University

Shaped by the past, creating the future

basas

British Association for South Asian Studies

Dear Laura Carballido-Coria,
Passport number: G29347006
Full address: 155 Hemdean Road, Caversham, Reading, RG4 7QU, United Kingdom

You are invited to attend the 2019 Annual Conference of the British Association of South Asian Studies (BASAS) to be held in Durham, United Kingdom from April 3 - 5, 2019. Details about your conference presentation are as follows:

Paper title: Royal Commission on Labour: public health in Colonial Delhi

The British Association for South Asian Studies (BASAS) is one of the world's leading learned societies for the study of South Asia. It is the largest UK academic association for the study of India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Afghanistan, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Bhutan, Maldives, and the South Asian diaspora.

BASAS supports advanced research in the humanities and social sciences of South Asia. One of the overseas organisations grant-aided by the British Academy, it is a registered charity (number 264591).

We deeply regret that we are unable to provide any financial support for your participation. All attendees must pay their own transportation, lodging, and registration. We can offer you a warm welcome, and guarantee you will find a most stimulating program of papers.

If you have any question, please get in touch with us at basas.2019@durham.ac.uk

We hope to see you in Durham.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Ben Campbell

Durham University

Shaped by the past, creating the future

on behalf of BASAS Conference Team

Department of Anthropology, Durham University DH1 3LE

Phone Number: +44 (0) 191 33 41621